CONDUCT

- Players must wear goggles at all times. Removing them only when instructed by referees.
- Players must ensure barrel-blocking devices, as provided, must be engaged whilst not actively participating in a game.
- Players must strictly observe all safety signage and referee instructions.
- No marker may be discharged or taken into any “safe” area.
- Players or visitors must not be under the influence of drugs or alcohol.
- Players must not deliberately fire at any player’s head.
- Unsportsmanlike conduct, abusive or violent behaviour by players will not be tolerated.
- No dangerous objects, lighter or matches are permitted on the playing fields.

GAMES

- Eliminated players- when tagged by a paintball, raise your marker, arm or both in the air above your head.
- Engage the barrel- blocking device and quickly move out of the playing area. Follow referees’ instructions.
- During games players must remain within designated game (playing field) areas.
- Players must not fire upon another person under a distance of 8 metres.
- Players must remain on the ground at all times.
- All injuries are to be reported to a referee or management.

EQUIPMENT

- Staff will inspect privately owned goggles or markers and approve before use.
- Do not disengage any safety features of the equipment unless instructed by a referee.
- DO NOT REMOVE GOGGLES FOR ANY REASON WHILST IN A PLAYING AREA.
- Please respect the equipment you have hired from us.

Observing these simple safety rules will ensure you have a fun and safe paintball game. Players may be removed from games for breaching the Rules.
